

MACMAHON OBSEQUIES

Ceremonies Attending the Removal of the Marshal's Remains.

One Thousand Reported Killed in Rio Grande du Sul—Spaniards Raked the Arabs with Shells.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Amid all the pomp of peace and war, the remains of Marshal MacMahon, ex-President of France, and Duke of Magenta, were conveyed to-day from the Church of La Madeleine across the river Seine to the Hotel des Invalides, there to rest until the great revivification of the heavenly trumpet. The body of the late but one of the marshals of France reached this city from Mont Cresson last night, and was conveyed to the Church of La Madeleine, where the historical building is situated half way between the Place de l'Opera and the Champs Elysees. The modest hearse bearing the ex-President's remains was followed from the railroad station by two old servants of the dead soldier, who carried the Marshal's baton, decorations, and other insignia of office. The insignia of the marshal of France was displayed on black velvet cushions, and the little cortege was respectfully saluted by the crowds of merry-makers flocking the streets in consequence of the festivities prepared in honor of the Russian sailors. By 9 o'clock this morning the Place de la Concorde, the Rue Royale, the Quai d'Orleans, the Boulevard des Capucines and all other streets and boulevards near the Madeleine and the Hotel des Invalides, the resting place in life and death of the veterans of France, were crowded with people anxious to see the funeral.

In front of La Madeleine the coffin of the famous soldier and ex-President was viewed by a vast crowd. The catafalque was draped with the tricolor of France and had on its sides escutcheons bearing the letter "M." Tall lighted tapers were placed around the bier and the whole was surrounded by a military guard of honor which drew up in front of La Madeleine shortly before the coffin was removed from the front of the altar to the portico. When the guard of honor had cleared the necessary space in front of the church countless beautiful wreaths, crosses and pillows of flowers were placed on and around the casket. Among the floral offerings was one beautiful display of lilacs, violets and roses, sent by Queen Victoria, and inscribed with the words: "Regrets and profound sympathy for the loss of a great soldier and a noble man." A tribute of admiration, inscribed: "A Tribute of Admiration for an illustrious soldier." The floral offering which attracted the most attention was sent by Emperor William of Germany, and was composed of violets and lilacs, with a large palm leaf, the center of which was worked the letter "W" and the imperial crown. The floral tribute of the Russians was a wreath of laurel, which was worked the letter "W" and the imperial crown. The floral tribute of the Russians was a wreath of laurel, which was worked the letter "W" and the imperial crown.

1,000 SOLDIERS KILLED.

Pitched Battle Reported to Have Taken Place in Rio Grande du Sul.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The world's special cable from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, says: "A pitched battle has been fought on the Rio Grande du Sul. The insurgents defeated the troops of General Castilo. One thousand soldiers are reported to have been killed or wounded. The Brazilian men-of-war at La Plata have been manned with new officers chosen by President Peixoto, and are ordered to co-operate in an attack to be made upon Admiral Meilo's fleet in the harbor of Rio de Janeiro." The morning from Rio de Janeiro, from which port he sailed on Sept. 23, Captain Stapleton said that there was nothing to report up to that date. Admiral Meilo's cannonading has done no serious damage, although a few have been killed by the shells. Captain Stapleton said that on the 23rd he saw a young Englishman killed in the streets by a piece of shell which had fallen from a Russian ship. A large number of foreign men-of-war were in the harbor, including the United States steamer Albatross, recently arrived.

Kaiser at King Albert's Jubilee.

DRESDEN, Oct. 22.—Kaiser Wilhelm arrived here at 5:30 p. m. He comes to attend the military jubilee of King Albert of Saxony. Prince George, of Saxony, and numerous high officers, attended by a guard of honor, met the Emperor at the railroad station. The Kaiser was conducted to a carriage in an open carriage drawn by four horses. The streets all along the route were densely crowded and the masses were very enthusiastic. The Kaiser was loudly cheered and the cheering was repeated on his arrival at the palace. There he was cordially welcomed by King Albert. The Kaiser sat between King Albert and Queen Caroline of Saxony. Emperor Wilhelm seemed the health of the King in a last year's speech.

Anarchist Rally in Trafalgar Square.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Socialist and Anarchist rally in Trafalgar square to-day was far from reaching the predictions of the committee who arranged it. The square was not half full and little enthusiasm was shown. The speeches were rapid and not very incendiary. The principal feature of the demonstration was a model of a ship, folded from which hung the effigy of a shrouded corpse, labeled: "Asquith, Murderer." Several other devices of a similar significance but less unique were carried by the procession which marched to the square.

RAILROAD CROSSING HORROR.

Superintendent Porter, of Buffalo Street Railroad, Cut to Pieces.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A distressing accident occurred this afternoon, at the Oneida-street grade crossing of the Lake Shore railroad, by which Superintendent A. J. Porter, of the Buffalo street railroad, lost his life and his wife and child were injured. The Porter family were driving across the tracks, when they were struck by a switch engine coming at speed. The vehicle was dashed into splinters, and the body of Superintendent Porter was dragged about two hundred feet along the rails, mangled and otherwise horribly mutilated. Mrs. Porter was thrown quite a distance, but was not injured. The terrible death of her husband has prostrated her more than the bodily pain. The child was not seriously hurt.

25.50—CHICAGO AND RETURN—$3.50

Via Pennsylvania Line

Good to return until Nov. 5. All trains start at South Chicago, Grant, Chicago and Englewood. For details apply to Ticket Agents, 48 West Washington street, 48 Jackson Place, Union Station, New York, or to the Pennsylvania Line, 100 Broadway, New York.

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup"

Has been used over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children with teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. For sale by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and look for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, 25c a bottle.

Hosts of people who used to use greasy and inflammatory unguents and astringent washes for cutaneous eruptions in vain have found relief and cure in the use of Sulphur Soap, the great outward specific and complexion beautifier. Sold by druggists.

Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cents.

Don't Miss This To-Night.

Professor Loiselet's lecture this evening will be an intellectual feast which no one should miss.

See display advertisement in this issue of $3 Chicago excursion by the various named lines Oct. 27, 28, 29 and 31.

83.50—Chicago and Return—$3.50

Every day via the Pennsylvania Line.

For Lord Vivian's Funeral.

ROME, Oct. 22.—King Humbert has telegraphed to the widow of Lord Vivian, the British ambassador who died here yesterday, that he was deeply affected and stating that he had lost a personal friend in

Lord Vivian. After the funeral service, which will be held in the hall of the British embassy on next Wednesday, the body of the British ambassador will be conveyed from that building through the leading streets, which will be lined with troops, to the English Church. Premier Giolitti will have personal charge of the funeral arrangements.

ARABS CUT TO PIECES.

Spanish Troops Gained a Decided Victory Over the Moors Saturday.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—The latest advices from Melilla show that the Spanish troops gained a decided victory over the Moors on Saturday. Early yesterday morning General Margallo, the Spanish commander, sent to Baj-el-Arbi a final warning that unless he carried out the promises he had made Thursday to persuade the Arabs to destroy their intrenchments the Spaniards would forthwith open a cannonade on the Moors. The Spaniards watched Baj-el-Arbi, accompanied by a strong escort of regulars, ride to the rebel posts and harangue the native chiefs, endeavoring to bring about a cessation of the hostilities, but he met with strong refusal.

At noon General Margallo called out the garrison and ordered Forts Camello and San Lorenzo, the nearest to the Kabyl trenches, to prepare for action. The Spanish troops, on the other hand, approached the mouth of the Gura, going as near the shore as the rough sea would allow. As soon as the Arabs saw the cruiser a large boat dashed to the shore and the firing at her with rifles, but their shots fell wide of the mark. The Vanadito came to anchor in an advantageous position and bombarded the Arabs with shells, and to which the natives replied with a harmless fusillade.

The Vanadito's Hotchkiss guns wrought havoc in the Arab trenches. Thirty-one shells were thrown among them, which must have done serious injury. Several shells were seen to fall in the midst of the group. The engagement lasted an hour, and the Vanadito returned to Melilla harbor without having sustained any damage.

A skirmish with Arabs several days ago on the banks of the Gura. The soldiers which the Arabs also were pursuing. Lieutenant in command of the Spaniards fired his revolver at the Arabs, and the soldiers poured a volley on them, putting them to flight.

1,000 SOLDIERS KILLED.

Pitched Battle Reported to Have Taken Place in Rio Grande du Sul.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The world's special cable from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, says: "A pitched battle has been fought on the Rio Grande du Sul. The insurgents defeated the troops of General Castilo. One thousand soldiers are reported to have been killed or wounded. The Brazilian men-of-war at La Plata have been manned with new officers chosen by President Peixoto, and are ordered to co-operate in an attack to be made upon Admiral Meilo's fleet in the harbor of Rio de Janeiro." The morning from Rio de Janeiro, from which port he sailed on Sept. 23, Captain Stapleton said that there was nothing to report up to that date. Admiral Meilo's cannonading has done no serious damage, although a few have been killed by the shells. Captain Stapleton said that on the 23rd he saw a young Englishman killed in the streets by a piece of shell which had fallen from a Russian ship. A large number of foreign men-of-war were in the harbor, including the United States steamer Albatross, recently arrived.

Kaiser at King Albert's Jubilee.

DRESDEN, Oct. 22.—Kaiser Wilhelm arrived here at 5:30 p. m. He comes to attend the military jubilee of King Albert of Saxony. Prince George, of Saxony, and numerous high officers, attended by a guard of honor, met the Emperor at the railroad station. The Kaiser was conducted to a carriage in an open carriage drawn by four horses. The streets all along the route were densely crowded and the masses were very enthusiastic. The Kaiser was loudly cheered and the cheering was repeated on his arrival at the palace. There he was cordially welcomed by King Albert. The Kaiser sat between King Albert and Queen Caroline of Saxony. Emperor Wilhelm seemed the health of the King in a last year's speech.

Anarchist Rally in Trafalgar Square.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Socialist and Anarchist rally in Trafalgar square to-day was far from reaching the predictions of the committee who arranged it. The square was not half full and little enthusiasm was shown. The speeches were rapid and not very incendiary. The principal feature of the demonstration was a model of a ship, folded from which hung the effigy of a shrouded corpse, labeled: "Asquith, Murderer." Several other devices of a similar significance but less unique were carried by the procession which marched to the square.

RAILROAD CROSSING HORROR.

Superintendent Porter, of Buffalo Street Railroad, Cut to Pieces.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A distressing accident occurred this afternoon, at the Oneida-street grade crossing of the Lake Shore railroad, by which Superintendent A. J. Porter, of the Buffalo street railroad, lost his life and his wife and child were injured. The Porter family were driving across the tracks, when they were struck by a switch engine coming at speed. The vehicle was dashed into splinters, and the body of Superintendent Porter was dragged about two hundred feet along the rails, mangled and otherwise horribly mutilated. Mrs. Porter was thrown quite a distance, but was not injured. The terrible death of her husband has prostrated her more than the bodily pain. The child was not seriously hurt.

25.50—CHICAGO AND RETURN—$3.50

Via Pennsylvania Line

Good to return until Nov. 5. All trains start at South Chicago, Grant, Chicago and Englewood. For details apply to Ticket Agents, 48 West Washington street, 48 Jackson Place, Union Station, New York, or to the Pennsylvania Line, 100 Broadway, New York.

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup"

Has been used over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children with teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. For sale by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and look for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, 25c a bottle.

Hosts of people who used to use greasy and inflammatory unguents and astringent washes for cutaneous eruptions in vain have found relief and cure in the use of Sulphur Soap, the great outward specific and complexion beautifier. Sold by druggists.

Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cents.

Don't Miss This To-Night.

Professor Loiselet's lecture this evening will be an intellectual feast which no one should miss.

See display advertisement in this issue of $3 Chicago excursion by the various named lines Oct. 27, 28, 29 and 31.

83.50—Chicago and Return—$3.50

Every day via the Pennsylvania Line.

For Lord Vivian's Funeral.

ROME, Oct. 22.—King Humbert has telegraphed to the widow of Lord Vivian, the British ambassador who died here yesterday, that he was deeply affected and stating that he had lost a personal friend in

KAISER IN HOT WATER

German Ministerial and Diplomatic Crisis Growing Worse.

Bismarckians Delighted with the Situation—Russian Duplicity—Italy's Financial Plight.

(Copyright, 1933, by the United Press.)

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—The semi-official dailies continued until Friday morning to deny the reports of dissensions between Chancellor von Caprivi and Count von Eulenburg, Prussian Minister President. All references to a quarrel between the Premiers were pronounced as pure inventions. On Friday and Saturday, however, the inspired editors were dumb over the reports being revived in various forms. A ministerial crisis suddenly became imminent, and the opposition editors, while making too much of the Cabinet feud, are, in most respects, telling the facts. Eulenburg precipitated the trouble. He told the Emperor he would resign in case Caprivi's concessions to Russia in the tariff negotiations should be approved. Behind this ostensible reason for wishing to resign, however, is a deep intrigue, in which Dr. Boose, Dr. Miquel and other Cabinet Ministers have played prominent parts. Caprivi has interfered in the election campaign. He has left Eulenburg's hands in every detail. Nevertheless, the Agrarians openly accused him of assisting candidates who favor a tariff-reform policy. These charges have produced such a state of anarchy in the corps of Prussian officials as has not been known before in the kingdom.

This splitting of the bureaucracy must be remedied by the Emperor. Unless he interferes to harmonize the factions before the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was a failure. Premier must be held by one man, as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present predicament is for Caprivi to retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the government's policy. The men nearest to Eulenburg are Count von Eulenburg, who retains the entire confidence of his sovereign. It is admitted generally that the right of the Emperor to remove a Minister has few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies.

The Russian members of the Russian treaty commission, finding the Chancellor's attitude unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of compromise and are now demanding the assembling of the Reichstag all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties, and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Eulenburg's position is not so pleasant. "We told you so," the Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the Emperor's policy was